THE following alterations and additions to the general Standing Orders are published for general information. They will be embodied in the Book which will shortly be issued to all concerned:—

SECTION X., PARAGRAPH 128 (7).

Insert the following new paragraph immediately after 128 (7):—

Instructions for troops proceeding by sea.

128A. From the moment the troops are on board, no officer, non-commissioned officer, or man is, under any pretence whatever, to quit his ship without special leave.

2. The military commanding officer, while taking care that discipline is observed by the troops, will bear in mind that the master of the ship has lawful authority to maintain good order amongst all on board, and in all matters necessary to ensure the safety of the ship and passengers, for which he is entirely responsible.

3. He will do all in his power for the comfort of those entrusted to his care. It is most important that the master, the military commanding officer, and the medical officer in charge should carry out their respective duties in harmony, in order that what is necessary for the maintenance of discipline and the comfort of those on board may be arranged without undue interference with the duties of the ship.

4. The military commanding officer is to pay attention to every requisition, consistent with the good of the service, made to him by the master.

5. In case of fire or other emergency, the commanding officer will bear in mind the responsibility of the master and will render him every assistance, without attempting to take command out of his hands.

6. Whenever any cause of complaint of missing provisions, accommodation, or any other matter may arise, or when it may seem desirable to make any suggestion, the commanding officer of the troops should at once, and without waiting until the end of the voyage, address himself in writing to the master in the case of a hired ship. Should he afterwards consider it expedient to make any representation to head-quarters, he will hand his report immediately on landing to the military staff officer superintending, for transmission to the general officer commanding, and, in case of one of Her Majesty's ships, he will give a copy of the report to the captain before leaving the vessel.

7. Officers, soldiers, and their families are strictly prohibited from taking on board any ship, or receiving on board, any wines, spirits, or malt liquors. Commanding officers will take precaution accordingly.

8. Officers, before embarking, will provide themselves with sufficient cash to meet all charges which they are liable to pay for wine, beer, &c., consumed on board, and any other charges they may incur.

9. Upon embarkation it is the duty of the officers to see that the men are allotted to berths, divided into watches and into messes, as far as possible; that their arms, accoutrements, &c., are disposed of in the most convenient way; and that all duties are regularly performed.

10. When more than one officer is on board, an officer of the day will be appointed, who will be responsible for all orders being carried out, and will report anything unusual to the commanding officer. He will see that the men's berths are made up, and kept clean and tidy, after breakfast. He will be in charge of the police, and see that they carry out their duties properly.

11. A sergeant and a sufficient number of men will be told off as police. Their principal duties are to see that there is no smoking except on the upper deck. They are also to see that the routine generally is carried out, and that there are no irregularities. One man should be always on duty, and should be relieved every two hours.

12. The Corps or Detachment will be divided into three watches, each under the command of an officer, if possible, and divided into four subdivisions for work when the numbers admit of such division. Mustering stations will be arranged as those most convenient according to the vessel. They will be ready to turn out whenever called, when they will fall in at once under an officer at the mustering station. Care should be taken, particularly in cases of sea-sickness, that the troops are not unduly exposed by being compelled to remain on deck.

13. The daily routine of duties and parades will be detailed by the officer commanding. The men should be paraded at least twice a day, and their arms and accoutrements inspected once a day.

14. At the alarm of "Man overboard" the bugler on duty will, without further orders, sound at once the "Alert," followed by the "Halt" (provided the master of the vessel allows buglers to sound). This order will be thoroughly explained to all buglers and troops as early as possible. Every soldier, woman, and child will stand fast and remain quiet; people below will remain below.

15. All regulations regarding "Fire" which are in force on board the vessel are to be most strictly adhered to. They will be read to the men, and thoroughly explained to them, as soon after embarkation as possible. It will be impressed on all ranks that on the occurrence of fire the most important and essential thing is silence, and a quiet and thorough carrying out of all orders. Any confusion is likely to sacrifice the lives of all on board.

16. On arrival at a port, leave to go ashore may be granted in special circumstances by the officer commanding, but should only be granted to men with exemplary character. Under ordinary circumstances no man will be allowed to leave the ship.

APPENDIX IV.

Part II., Table VI.—Under heading "Ambulance Corps," in fourth and sixth column, opposite the numeral 119, erase the numeral "1" in each column.

APPENDIX IV.

Part II., paragraph 8.—Insert following words immediately after paragraph relating to helmet chains:—

Shoulder straps.

Shoulder straps will be made of such material as is herein-after specified for each Corps. The front edge will be cut perpendicular to the base, which is not to exceed $2\frac{3}{4}$ inches or be less than $2\frac{1}{4}$ inches in breadth. The length of straps will vary with the size of the garment, and the rear edge will slope up to $1\frac{1}{2}$ inches and $1\frac{1}{4}$ inches, respectively, across at the button; the top edge will be rounded off. Embroidered letters on base of strap will not exceed $\frac{3}{8}$ -inch in height.

NOTE.—The present stock of embroidered material will, however, be utilised until exhausted, in which case the base must be cut as narrow as will admit of $\frac{1}{2}$ -inch space outside the lettering in each instance.

APPENDIX IX.

Paragraph 27b.—Erase the following words—"if after his first year of service." Also erase numerals "50" and "40," and substitute "60" and "50" respectively therefor.

APPENDIX XIII.

Insert new paragraph immediately under paragraph 51:—

Pay.

51a. Pay-sheets (in duplicate) of Corps will be made up daily, and will be forwarded to the Officer detailed to perform the duties of Paymaster, not later than 10 a.m. each day. The amount earned by each Corps while in Camp will, if possible, be paid to the Commanding Officer on the last day of the Camp, and prior to marching out.

APPENDIX XIII.

Paragraph 18.—After the word "Rations" in the heading, insert the following words—"Forage, &c.," and at the end of the paragraph insert the following words—"Forage will be issued at 4.30 p.m. for the following day."

No. 91.

WITH reference to General Standing Order, Appendix IX., No. 27, it is notified for general information that from the 1st July, 1894, until further orders the standard for efficiency in the annual course of musketry will be raised to 60 points for M.H. rifle and 50 points for M.H. carbine.

No. 92.

During the current year, however (ending 30th June, 1894), a recruit will be allowed to count as efficient if he performs the course of musketry without reaching any standard, but not so in subsequent years.

No. 93.

ATTENTION is directed to Standing General Order No. 118, under which the Q.D.F. Stores at Brisbane and Townsville will be closed during the month of June next for stock-taking.

Brigade Major, Q.D.F.

ORDER LVII.

I.—APPEALS.

Appeals to be by way of rehearing.

4. [Order LVII., r. 1.] Appeals to the Full Court from judgments or orders of the Northern Court, or of Judges of the Supreme Court, whether in Court or Chambers, shall be by way of rehearing.

Mode of instituting appeals.

5. [Order LVII., r. 2.] Appeals shall be instituted by notice of motion, which shall be served and delivered as hereinafter provided; and no petition, case, or other formal proceeding other than such notice of motion shall be necessary. The appellant may by the notice of motion appeal from the whole or any part of the judgment or order appealed from, and the notice of motion shall state whether the whole or part only of the judgment or order is complained of, and in the latter case shall specify the part complained of.

To whom notice to be given.

6. [Order LVII., r. 3.] Notice of the motion by way of appeal shall be served upon all parties directly affected by the appeal, and it shall not be necessary to serve parties not so affected; but the Court of Appeal may direct notice of the appeal to be served on all or any parties to the action or proceeding, or upon any person not a party, and in the meantime may postpone or adjourn the hearing of the appeal upon such terms as may be just, and may give such judgment and make such order as might have been given or made if the persons served with such notice had been originally parties. Any notice of appeal may be amended at any time as the Court of Appeal may think fit.

Time.

7. [Order LVII., r. 4.] The notice of motion must be served within the times following, respectively, that is to say:—

- (1) If the appeal is from an interlocutory judgment or order of a single Judge whether in Court or Chambers, within ten days;
- (2) In any other case within twenty-one days; or within such extended times as the Court or a Judge may allow:

Provided that when a summons to vary a certificate is adjourned into Court and heard together with the further consideration of a cause, the time for instituting the appeal from the order on the summons shall be the same as that for instituting the appeal from the order on further consideration.

The said respective periods shall be calculated, in the case of an appeal from a judgment or order of the Northern Court or an order in Chambers, from the date when such judgment or order was pronounced, and in all other cases from the date when the judgment or order was signed, entered, or otherwise perfected, or, in the case of the refusal of an application, from the date of the refusal.

The times of the vacations shall be reckoned in the computation of the periods aforesaid.

Notice to Registrar.

8. [Order LVII., r. 5.] The appellant shall, within the time hereby prescribed for serving the notice of appeal, file in the Supreme Court Office at Brisbane, or, if the judgment or order appealed from was pronounced by the Northern Court or within the Northern District, in the Supreme Court Office at Townsville, a copy of the notice. And upon such service and filing the appeal shall be deemed to be duly instituted.

Appeals from refusal of ex parte applications.

9. [Order LVII., r. 6.] When an ex parte application has been refused by the Northern Court or by a Judge, the application may be renewed ex parte by way of appeal to the Full Court at Brisbane.

The application may be made at any sitting of the Court within four days, or, in the case of an application refused by the Northern Court or by a Judge in the Northern District, within fourteen days, from the date of the refusal, or, if the Court is not sitting on the last of such days, at any time within four days after the commencement of the next sittings of the Court, or within such extended time as the Court may allow.

Length of notice.

10. [Order LVII., r. 7.] Notice of motion by way of appeal from an interlocutory judgment or order shall be for the first sitting of the Full Court held after the expiration of ten days from the institution of the appeal in the case of an appeal from the Northern Court or a Judge sitting in the Northern District, and in any other case for the first sitting of the Court held after the expiration of four days from the institution of the appeal. In any other case the notice of motion shall be for the first sitting of the Full Court held after the expiration of fourteen days from the institution of the appeal.

When presence of Northern Judge is required.

11. [Order LVII., r. 8.] Provided that when the appeal is such that the presence of a Northern Judge will be required to constitute the Full Court for hearing the appeal the notice of motion shall be for the first sitting of the Full Court held after the expiration of the periods aforesaid which is appointed for the hearing of such appeals.

Time for setting down.

12. [Order LVII., r. 9.] Every appeal, not being an application by way of renewal of an ex parte application which has been refused, shall, unless the Court otherwise directs, be set down for hearing four days at least before the day for which the notice is given.

In Northern appeals copy of notice of appeal to be filed in Brisbane.

13. [Order LVII., r. 10.] When the appeal is from a judgment or order pronounced by the Northern Court or in the Northern District, the appellant shall also, four days at least before the day for which notice of appeal is given, file a copy thereof in the Supreme Court Office, Brisbane.

Amendment.

14. [Order LVII., r. 11.] The Court of Appeal shall have all the powers and duties as to amendment and otherwise of the Court or Judge appealed from, and shall have full discretionary power to receive further evidence upon questions of fact, which evidence may be taken either by oral examination in Court, by affidavit, or by deposition taken before an examiner or commissioner. Such further evidence may be given without special leave upon appeals from interlocutory orders, and in any case as to matters which have occurred after the date of the decision from which the appeal is brought.

Upon appeals from a judgment after the trial or hearing of a cause or matter upon the merits, such further evidence (save as to matters subsequent as aforesaid) shall not be admitted except on special grounds. The Court, upon the hearing of an appeal, shall have power to draw inferences of fact, and to give any judgment and make any order which ought to have been given or made in the first instance, and to make such further or other order as the case may require.

The powers aforesaid may be exercised by the said Court notwithstanding that the notice of appeal may be that part only of the decision may be reversed or varied, and such powers may be exercised in favour of all or any of the respondents or parties, although such respondents or parties may not have appealed from or complained of the decision.

The Court shall have power to make such order as to the whole or any part of the costs of appeal as may be just.

New trial may be ordered.

15. [Order LVII., r. 12.] If upon the hearing of an appeal it appears to the Court that a new trial ought to be had, the Court may, if it thinks fit, order that the judgment shall be set aside and that a new trial shall be had.

Cross-appeals.

16. [Order LVII., r. 13.] It shall not under any circumstances be necessary for a respondent to give notice of motion by way of cross-appeal, but if a respondent intends upon the hearing of an appeal to contend that the decision appealed from should be varied, he shall within the time prescribed by the next following Rule, or such time as may be directed by special order in any case, give notice of his intention to such of the parties as may be affected by such contention. The omission to give such notice shall not diminish the powers of the Court when hearing the appeal, but may, in the discretion of the Court, be ground for an adjournment of the appeal or for a special order as to costs.

Time.

17. [Order LVII., r. 14.] Subject to any special order which may be made in any case, notice by a respondent under the last preceding Rule shall be given two clear days before the day for which the notice of motion by way of appeal is given.

Documents to be forwarded in Northern appeals.

18. [Order LVII., r. 14.] When the appeal is from the Northern Court, or from a decision pronounced in the Northern District, or from a decision pronounced in a cause or matter pending in the Northern Court, the Registrar at Townsville shall forward to the Registrar at Brisbane all such documents as may be necessary for the hearing of the appeal.

Papers for Judges.

19. [Order LVII., r. 15.] Four days at least before the day for which the notice of appeal is given, the appellant shall deliver at the Chambers of each of the Judges who is to sit on the hearing of the appeal a copy of the Judge's notes taken in the Court below, including the notes of evidence, if any, and also a copy of such documentary evidence, if any, as may be necessary for the purposes of the appeal. The costs of copies of unnecessary documents will not be allowed.

Evidence on appeals.

20. [Order LVII., r. 17.] When the evidence has not been printed in the Court below, the Court or a Judge may order the whole or any part thereof to be printed for the purposes of the appeal. Any party printing evidence for the purpose of an appeal without such order shall bear the costs thereof unless the Full Court otherwise orders.

Interlocutory orders not appealed from not to bar relief.

21. [Order LVII., r. 18.] An interlocutory order or rule from which there has been no appeal shall not operate so as to bar or prejudice the Court, upon hearing an appeal, from giving such decision upon the appeal as may be just.

Rule nisi on appeal from Northern Court.

22. [Order LVII., r. 19.] When on an appeal from the refusal of an ex parte application by the Northern Court or by a Judge in the Northern District the Court is of opinion that a rule nisi or order nisi should have been granted, the Court shall grant a rule or order nisi returnable before itself or before the Northern Court.

II.—NEW TRIALS.

Applications for new trials of causes heard before a Judge.

23. [Order LVII., r. 20.] Every application for a new trial or to set aside a verdict, finding, or judgment, in a cause or matter where there has been a trial by a Judge without a jury shall be made by appeal to the Full Court.

Applications for new trials of cases tried by jury to be by notice of motion.

24. [Order LVII., r. 21.] Every application for a new trial or to set aside a verdict, finding, or judgment, in a cause or matter in which a verdict has been found by a jury, or in which there has been a trial by a referee, shall be made to the Full Court by motion upon notice. No rule nisi or order to show cause or other formal proceeding other than the notice of motion shall be made or taken. The notice shall state the grounds of the application, and whether all or part only of the verdict or findings is complained of.

Amendment of notice.

25. [Order LVII., r. 22.] The notice may be amended at any time by leave of the Court or a Judge, upon such terms as the Court or Judge may think just.

Time.

26. [Order LVII., r. 23.] The notice of motion must be served upon the party in whose favour the judgment was given within twenty-one days from the conclusion of the trial or the date of the pronouncing of the judgment upon further consideration, as the case may be; or within such extended time as the Court or a Judge may allow.

The times of the vacations shall be reckoned in the computation of the period aforesaid.

General practice.

27. [Order LVII., r. 24.] Except as aforesaid, all the provisions of the foregoing Rules of this Order relating to appeals shall apply to applications for new trials or to set aside verdicts, findings, or judgments in causes or matters in which a verdict has been found by a jury, or in which there has been a trial by a referee.

New trial as to any question.

28. [Order LVII., r. 25.] A new trial may be ordered on any question, whatever be the grounds for the new trial, without interfering with the finding or decision upon any other question.

Power of Court.

29. [Order LVII., r. 26.] Upon the hearing of an application for a new trial or to set aside the verdict or finding of a jury the Court may, if satisfied that it has before it all the materials necessary for finally determining the questions in dispute, or any of them, or for awarding any relief sought, give judgment accordingly, or may, if it is of opinion that it has not sufficient materials before it to enable it to give judgment, direct the motion to stand over for further consideration, and may direct such issues or questions to be tried or determined and such accounts and inquiries to be taken and made as it may think fit.

Notes of ruling or direction.

30. [Order LVII., r. 27.] If upon the hearing of an appeal or application for a new trial or to set aside a verdict or finding of a jury a question arises as to the ruling or direction of the Judge to a jury or assessors, the Court shall have regard to the verified notes or other evidence and to such other materials as the Court may deem expedient.

III.—GENERAL PROVISIONS.

Appeal or motion for a new trial not to be stay of proceedings.

31. [Order LVII., r. 28.] An appeal or proceeding with the object of obtaining a new trial or of setting aside a verdict or finding or judgment shall not operate as a stay of proceedings unless the Court or a Judge so orders. Any such order may be made as to the whole or any part of the proceedings in the cause or matter, and may be made upon such terms as the Court or Judge granting the stay may think fit.

No intermediate act or proceeding shall be invalidated except so far as the Full Court may direct.

Practice in Northern appeals.

32. [Order LVII., r. 29.] When an appeal or application for a new trial or to set aside a verdict or judgment in a cause or matter pending in the Northern Court has been disposed of, the order of the Court shall be drawn up by the Registrar in Brisbane and shall be filed in the Supreme Court Office at Townsville, and all necessary proceedings shall be had and taken therein as if the same had been made by the Northern Court.

Pastoral Occupation Branch,
Brisbane, 12th May, 1894.

UNSURVEYED RUNS.

SALE OF THE UNEXPIRED TERMS OF LEASES OF FORFEITED RUNS OF CROWN LANDS IN THE UNSETTLED DISTRICTS.

IT is hereby notified for general information, that, in accordance with the provisions of the 27th clause of "The Pastoral Leases Act of 1869," and of the Regulations of the 27th May, 1870, established under said Act, relating to the sale by auction of Forfeited or Vacated Runs, the boundaries of which have not been defined by actual survey, the unexpired terms of the Leases of the Unsurveyed Runs of Crown Lands hereunder described, which have become vacant by forfeiture or otherwise, will be offered for Sale by Public Auction, at the Auction Rooms of G. T. Bell, Albert street, Brisbane, on TUESDAY, 19th June, 1894, at Eleven o'clock a.m.

The unexpired Lease of each of the Runs will be only sold; and the Government will not hold themselves responsible for the correctness of the area of any Unsurveyed Run so offered. Should no country be found to exist on survey the moneys paid will be returned.

The Government reserve the right of increasing the available area if it should be discovered after survey that the estimate set down opposite each run is less than the character of the country warrants. In the event of the available area being increased, the purchaser will be liable for the rent on account thereof during the period commencing from date of unexpired term of lease.

The upset price per square mile at which each Run will be offered is inserted opposite to its name in the appended Schedule, according to the estimated area in each case; and the highest amount bid shall be the annual rental for the unexpired period of the Lease, ending as stated in the Schedule annexed.

A deposit of the whole amount bid, being the first year's rent, will have to be paid at the time of sale.

The purchaser of the remainder of either of the Leases specified below shall be allowed six months to stock the country, failing in which, or not thereafter maintaining the amount of stock thereon as prescribed by the Act, the Lease may become cancelled.

Full information respecting the boundaries and situation of the Runs, so far as is known, may be obtained by application at this Department.

* NOTE.—Lots 1 and 2 will be offered under the 40th section of "The Crown Lands Act of 1884."

REMARKS.

Mean pressure was 0·139 higher, and mean temperature was 2·9 lower, than in March. The mean vapour tension was 0·091 lower, and the relative humidity 5%_o less, than last month. Lunar halo observed on 17th.

* NOTE.—The average death-rate of children under one year, as compared to births, during the ten years ended 31st December, 1892, throughout the whole of Queensland, was 12·15. Vide Vital Statistics of 1892.

April, 1894, compared with April, 1893.

Mean pressure was 0·170 higher than for the same period a year ago. The mean shade temperature was 2·1 higher than last year. The mean vapour tension or absolute weight of vapour was 0·049 more than, and the percentage of humidity was 1% more than, twelve months ago. The mean wind velocity was 0·5 more than in April, 1893; while the amount of cloud was 1·2 more. Examining the winds, we find that during April, 1894, northerly and north-east winds were observed 3 and 3 times, as against 1 and 2 times for the previous year. Easterly winds were observed 13 times in April, 1894, and 9 during April, 1893; and the south-east winds were 8 and 1 respectively. The southerly winds were 22 this year, against 26 a year ago. South-west currents were noted 3 and 8 this and last year respectively. Westerly winds were 4 and 4 this and last year respectively, and the north-west winds were 0 this year and 5 a year ago. The amount of calms observed was 29 this year, as against 34 twelve months ago. As for rainfall, we had 2·607 inches in April, 1894, against 2·084 inches in April, 1893.

The Observatory, which was reorganised on 1st January, 1887, is conducted entirely in accordance with the Royal Meteorological Society's Rules.

SIR,—I have the honour to transmit to you, for publication in the Colony under your Government, a copy of an Order of Her Majesty the Queen in Council, dated the 3rd of March, 1894, for giving effect to the Treaty between Her Majesty and His Majesty the King of Portugal for the mutual extradition of Fugitive Criminals, signed at Lisbon, on the 17th of October, 1892, the ratifications of which were exchanged at Lisbon, on the 13th of November, 1893.

Earl Spencer,

Mr. Gladstone,
Sir William Vernon Harcourt.

WHEREAS by the Extradition Acts, 1870 and 1873, it was amongst other things enacted that, where an arrangement has been made with any foreign State with respect to the surrender to such State of any fugitive criminals, Her Majesty may, by Order in Council, direct that the said Acts shall apply in the case of such foreign State; and that Her Majesty may, by the same or any subsequent Order, limit the operation of the Order, and restrict the same to fugitive criminals who are in or suspected of being in the part of Her Majesty's dominions specified in the Order, and render the operation thereof subject to such conditions, exceptions, and qualifications as may be deemed expedient; and that if, by any law made after the passing of the Act of 1870 by the Legislature of any British possession, provision is made for carrying into effect within such possession the surrender of fugitive criminals who are in or suspected of being in such British possession, Her Majesty may, by the Order in Council applying the said Acts in the case of any foreign State, or by any subsequent Order, suspend the operation within any such British possession of the said Acts, or of any part thereof, so far as it relates to such foreign State, and so long as such Law continues in force there and no longer:

ARTICLE III.

The Portuguese Government will not grant the extradition of any Portuguese subject, and Her Britannic Majesty's Government will not grant the extradition of any British subject; but in the case of a naturalized subject, this Article shall only be applicable if the naturalization was obtained previous to the commission of the crime giving rise to the application for extradition.

ARTICLE IV.

The extradition shall not take place if the person claimed on the part of the British Government, or the person claimed on the part of the Portuguese Government, has already been tried and discharged or punished, or is still under trial within the territories of the two High Contracting Parties respectively, for the crime for which his extradition is demanded.

If the person claimed on the part of the British Government, or if the person claimed on the part of the Portuguese Government, should be under examination, or is undergoing sentence under a conviction for any other crime within the territories of the two High Contracting Parties respectively, his extradition shall be deferred until after he has been discharged, whether by acquittal, or on expiration of his sentence, or otherwise.

ARTICLE V.

The extradition shall not take place if, subsequently to the commission of the crime, or the institution of the penal prosecution or the conviction thereon, exemption from prosecution or punishment has been acquired by lapse of time, according to the laws of the State applied to.

ARTICLE VI.

A fugitive criminal shall not be surrendered if the offence in respect of which his surrender is demanded is one of a political character, or if he prove that the requisition for his surrender has, in fact, been made with a view to try or punish him for an offence of a political character.

ARTICLE VII.

A person surrendered can in no case be kept in prison or be brought to trial in the State to which the surrender has been made, for any other crime, or on account of any other matters, than those for which the extradition shall have taken place, until he has been restored, or had an opportunity of returning to the State by which he has been surrendered.

This stipulation does not apply to crimes committed after the extradition.

ARTICLE VIII.

The requisition for extradition shall be made through the Diplomatic Agents of the High Contracting Parties respectively.

The requisition for the extradition of an accused person must be accompanied by a warrant of arrest issued by the competent authority of the State requiring the extradition, and by such evidence as, according to the laws of the place where the accused is found, would justify his arrest if the crime had been committed there.

If the requisition relates to a person already convicted, it must be accompanied by the sentence of condemnation passed against the convicted person by the competent Court of the State that makes the requisition for extradition.

A sentence passed in contumaciam is not to be deemed a conviction, but circumstances may cause a person so sentenced in contumaciam to be dealt with as an accused person.

ARTICLE IX.

If the requisition for extradition be in accordance with the foregoing stipulations, the competent authorities of the State applied to shall proceed to the arrest of the fugitive.

ARTICLE X.

If the fugitive has been arrested in the British dominions, he shall forthwith be brought before a competent Magistrate, who is to examine him and to conduct the preliminary investigation of the case, just as if the apprehension had taken place for a crime committed in the British dominions.

In the examinations which they have to make in accordance with the foregoing stipulations, the authorities of the British dominions shall admit as valid evidence the sworn depositions or the affirmations of witnesses taken in the dominions of Portugal, or copies thereof, and likewise the warrants and sentences issued therein, and certificates of, or judicial documents stating the fact of, a conviction, provided the same are authenticated as follows:—

1. A warrant must purport to be signed by a Portuguese Judge, Magistrate, or officer.
2. Depositions or affirmations, or the copies thereof, must purport to be certified under the hand of a Portuguese Judge, Magistrate, or officer to be the original depositions or affirmations, or to be the true copies thereof, as the case may require.
3. A certificate of or judicial document stating the fact of a conviction must purport to be certified by a Portuguese Judge, Magistrate, or officer.

ARTIGO III.

O Governo Portuguez nao concederá a extradição de qualquer subdito Portuguez, e o Governo de Sua Magestade Britannica nao concederá a extradição de qualquer subdito Britannico; mas quando se tratar de um subdito naturalizado só serao applicadas as disposicoes d'este Artigo no caso de ter sido a naturalisação obtida antes da perpetração do crime que deu lugar ao pedido de extradição.

ARTIGO IV.

Nao poderá effectuar-se a extradição se o individuo reclamado pelo Governo Britannico ou o individuo reclamado pelo Governo Portuguez já tiver sido julgado e condemnado ou absolvido, ou estiver sujeito ainda a julgamento, no territorio d'alguma das Altas Partes Contractantes em razao do crime pelo qual tiver sido reclamada a sua extradição.

Se o individuo reclamado pelo Governo Britannico, ou se o individuo reclamado pelo Governo Portuguez, se achar ainda sujeito a processo, ou estiver cumprindo sentença em virtude de condemnação por outro crime no territorio d'uma das Altas Partes Contractantes, demorar-se-ha a sua extradição até que ou em razao de absolvição proferida, ou por ter cumprido sentença, ou por outro motivo esteja livre.

ARTIGO V.

Nao se realisará a extradição se subsequentemente á pratica do acto criminoso, ou á instauração do processo criminal, ou á condemnação do reu, resultar isenção de acção criminal ou de punição em razao do tempo decorrido, segundo as leis do paiz ao qual fôr feita a instancia da extradição.

ARTIGO VI.

Um criminoso refugiado nao será entregue se o delicto que motivar o pedido de extradição fôr de caracter politico, ou se elle provar que esse pedido foi de facto apresentado no intuito de o processar ou punir por um delicto de caracter politico.

ARTIGO VII.

Um individuo entregue nao pode em caso algum ser detido em prisao ou mettido em processo no Estado ao qual fôr concedida a extradição por crime ou em razao de factos diversos dos que determinaram a extradição, emquanto nao tiver voltado ou tido occasiao de voltar ao Estado pelo qual foi entregue.

Nao se applicará esta estipulação aos crimes commettidos depois da extradição.

ARTIGO VIII.

O pedido de extradição deverá ser apresentado pelos Agentes Diplomaticos das Altas Partes Contractantes.

Deverao acompanhar o pedido de extradição d'um individuo accusado o mandado de captura expedido pela autoridade competente do Estado reclamante, e documentos que, em face das leis do lugar onde estiver o accusado, bastem para justificar a prisao d'este se ali se tivesse perpetrado o crime.

Se o pedido se referir a individuo previamente condemnado terá de ser acompanhado da sentença condemnatoria proferida contra o criminoso pelo tribunal competente do Estado que requerer a extradição.

Uma sentença de revelia nao equivale a uma condemnação; mas dadas certas circumstancias poderá o individuo condemnado á revelia ser tratado como accusado.

ARTIGO IX.

Quando o pedido de extradição fôr feito em harmonia com as precedentes estipulações, as autoridades competentes do Estado requerido procederão á captura de refugiado.

ARTIGO X.

Se o refugiado fôr preso nos dominios Britannicos terá de comparecer immediatamente perante o Magistrado competente, que deverá inquirir-o e proceder a investigações preliminares da causa, como se a prisao se houvesse effectuado em raz o de crime commettido nos dominios Britannicos.

Nas investigações a que tiverem de proceder em conformidade com as precedentes estipulações, as autoridades dos dominios Britannicos deverao admitir como testemunho valido os depoimentos ou asserções juradas de testemunhas tomadas nos dominios de Portugal, ou seus traslados, e pela mesma forma os mandados e sentenças proferidos, e attestados ou documentos officiaes affirmativos de condemnação proferida, comtanto que esses documentos sejam legalizados pela forma seguinte:—

1. Um mandado terá de ser firmado pelo Juiz, Magistrado, ou funcionario Portuguez.
2. Os depoimentos e asserções e seus traslados devem vir acompanhados de declarações firmadas por Juiz, Magistrado, ou funcionario Portuguez de como sao os depoimentos ou asserções originaes ou seus traslados authenticos, segundo cumprir.
3. Um attestado ou documento judicial affirmativo de condemnação proferida deverá ser certificado por Juiz, Magistrado, ou funcionario Portuguez.

4. In every case such warrant, deposition, affirmation, copy, certificate, or judicial document must be authenticated either by the oath of some witness, or by being sealed with the official seal of the Minister of Justice, or some other Portuguese Minister; but any other mode of authentication for the time being permitted by the law in that part of the British dominions where the examination is taken may be substituted for the foregoing.

ARTICLE XI.

If the fugitive has been arrested in the dominions of Portugal, his surrender shall be granted if upon examination by a competent authority it appears that the documents furnished by the British Government contain sufficient prima facie evidence to justify the extradition.

The Portuguese authorities shall admit as valid evidence records drawn up by the British authorities of the depositions of witnesses, or copies thereof, and records of conviction, or other judicial documents, or copies thereof: Provided that the said documents be signed or authenticated by an authority whose competence shall be certified by the seal of a Minister of State of Her Britannic Majesty.

ARTICLE XII.

The extradition shall not take place unless the evidence be found sufficient, according to the laws of the State applied to, either to justify the committal of the prisoner for trial, in case the crime had been committed in the territory of the said State, or to prove that the prisoner is the identical person convicted by the Courts of the State which makes the requisition, and that the crime of which he has been convicted is one in respect of which extradition could, at the time of such conviction, have been granted by the State applied to. In Her Britannic Majesty's dominions the fugitive criminal shall not be surrendered until the expiration of fifteen days from the date of his being committed to prison to await his surrender.

ARTICLE XIII.

If the individual claimed by one of the two High Contracting Parties in pursuance of the present Treaty should be also claimed by one or several other Powers on account of other crimes or offences committed upon their respective territories, his extradition shall be granted to that State whose demand is earliest in date.

ARTICLE XIV.

If sufficient evidence for the extradition be not produced within two months from the date of the apprehension of the fugitive, or within such further time as the State applied to, or the proper Tribunal thereof, shall direct, the fugitive shall be set at liberty.

ARTICLE XV.

All articles seized which were in the possession of the person to be surrendered at the time of his apprehension shall, if the competent authority of the State applied to for the extradition has ordered the delivery thereof, be given up when the extradition takes place; and the said delivery shall extend not merely to the stolen articles, but to everything that may serve as a proof of the crime.

ARTICLE XVI.

All expenses connected with extradition shall be borne by the demanding State.

ARTICLE XVII.

The stipulations of the present Treaty shall be applicable to the Colonies and foreign possessions of both of the High Contracting Parties, so far as the laws for the time being in force in such Colonies and foreign possessions respectively will allow.

The requisition for the surrender of a fugitive criminal who has taken refuge in any of such Colonies or foreign possessions may be made to the Governor or chief authority of such Colony or possession by the Chief Consular authority of the other State in such Colony or possession.

Such requisitions may be disposed of, subject always, as nearly as may be, and so far as the law of such Colony or foreign possession will allow, to the provisions of this Treaty, by the said Governor or chief authority, who, however, shall be at liberty either to grant the surrender or to refer the matter to his Government.

The High Contracting Parties shall, however, be at liberty to make special arrangements in their respective Colonies and foreign possessions for the surrender of criminals who may take refuge therein, on the basis, as nearly as may be, and so far as the law of such Colony or foreign possession will allow, of the provisions of the present Treaty.

Requisitions for the surrender of a fugitive criminal emanating from any Colony or foreign possession of either of the High Contracting Parties shall be governed by the rules laid down in the preceding Articles of the present Treaty.

ARTICLE XVIII.

The present Treaty shall come into force ten days after its publication, in conformity with the forms prescribed by the laws of the High Contracting Parties. It may be terminated by

4. Em cada causa especial estes mandados, depoimentos, allegações, traslados, attestados, ou documentos officiaes, teem de ser authenticados ou por juramento de testemunhas, ou pela applicação do sello official do Ministro da Justiça ou de outro Ministro de Portugal; poderá porem substituir a precedente outra forma de legalisação reconhecida por lei vigente na parte dos dominios Britannicos onde se effectuar a diligencia.

ARTIGO XI.

Se o refugiado fôr preso nos dominios de Portugal, deverá ser concedida a extradição se do exame a que proceder a autoridade competente resultar que os documentos apresentados pelo Governo Britannico conteem elementos sufficientes prima facie para justificar a extradição.

As autoridades Portuguezas considerarão elemento valido as certidoes passadas pelas autoridades Britannicas dos depoimentos, das testemunhas ou seus traslados, e certidoes de sentença condemnatoria ou outros documentos judiciaes ou traslados d'elles: Uma vez que os referidos documentos sejam assignados ou legalizados por uma autoridade cuja competencia seja authenticada com o sello d'um Ministro d' Estado de Sua Magestade Britannica.

ARTIGO XII.

Não se effectuará a extradição se os documentos apresentados não forem bastantes para, segundo as leis do Estado requerido, sejeitar o preso a julgamento se o crime tivesse sido perpetrado no territorio do referido Estado, ou para provar que o preso é o proprio individuo condemnado pelos Tribunaes do Estado requerente, e que o crime por que foi condemnado é d'aquelles pelos quaes ao tempo da condemnação podia o Estado requerido ter concedido a extradição. O criminoso refugiado nos dominios de Sua Magestade Britannica só poderá ser entregue findo o prazo de quinze dias contados da entrada na cadeia para aguardar n'ella a occasiao ea entrega.

ARTIGO XIII.

Se o individuo reclamado por uma das Altas Partes Contractantes nos termos do presente Tratado fôr ao mesmo tempo reclamado por outra ou outras Potencias por outros crimes ou delictos commettidos em seus respectivos territorios, será concedida a extradição ao Estado cuja instancia preceder na data as outras.

ARTIGO XIV.

Se os documentos apresentados dentro de dois mezes contados da data da captura do refugiado, ou no prazo de tempo que indicar o Estado requerido ou o Tribunal competente d' esse Estado, não forem sufficientes para se conceder a extradição, o preso será posto em liberdade.

ARTIGO XV.

ARTIGO XVI.

Todas as despesas relativas a extradição serao custeadas pelo Estado que a reclamar.

ARTIGO XVII.

As estipulações d'este Tratado terao applicação ás Colonias e possesões ultramarinas de ambas as Altas Partes Contractantes até onde o permittirem as leis ao tempo em vigor em taes Colonias e possesões ultramarinas.

O pedido de extradição do criminoso que se houver refugiado em alguma d'essas Colonias ou possesões ultramarinas poderá ser apresentado ao Governador ou primeira autoridade da Colonia ou possessão de que se tratar pela principal autoridade Consular do outro Estado existente n'essa Colonia ou possessão.

Estes pedidos poderao ser resolvidos sujeitandoos tanto quanto ser possa, e até onde o permittir a lei da Colonia ou possessão ultramarina, ás disposições d'este Tratado, pelo referido Governador ou primeira autoridade a qual todavia terá a liberdade de deferir a extradição ou de referir o assumpto ao seu Governo.

As Altas Partes Contractantes terao comtudo a faculdade de estabelecer accordos especiaes nas suas respectivas Colonias e possesões ultramarinas para a extradição de criminosos que se houverem refugiado n'ellas, tomando por base, tanto quanto possivel e até onde o permittir a legislação da Colonia ou possessão, as disposições d'este Tratado.

SIR,—I have the honour to transmit to you, for publication in the Colony under your Government, a copy of an Order of Her Majesty the Queen in Council dated the 10th of March, 1894, for giving effect to the Treaty between Her Majesty and the President of the Republic of Liberia, for the mutual Extradition of Fugitive Criminals, signed at London on the 16th of December, 1892, the ratifications of which were exchanged at London on the 31st of January, 1894.

I have, &c.,

[Enclosure.]

ORDER IN COUNCIL.

EXTRADITION TREATY WITH LIBERIA.

WINDSOR, 10TH MARCH, 1894.—At the Court at Windsor, the tenth day of March, 1894.

Present:

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.
Lord Privy Seal.
Earl of Kimberley.

Mr. Secretary Fowler.
Mr. Lefevre.
Mr. Bryce.

WHEREAS by the Extradition Acts, 1870 and 1873, it was amongst other things enacted that, where an arrangement has been made with any foreign State with respect to the surrender to such State of any fugitive criminals, Her Majesty may, by Order in Council, direct that the said Acts shall apply in the case of such foreign State; and that Her Majesty may, by the same or any subsequent Order, limit the operation of the Order, and restrict the same to fugitive criminals who are in or suspected of being in the part of Her Majesty's dominions specified in the Order, and render the operation thereof subject to such conditions, exceptions, and qualifications as may be deemed expedient; and that if, by any law made after the passing of the Act of 1870 by the Legislature of any British possession, provision is made for carrying into effect within such possession the surrender of fugitive criminals who are in or suspected of being in such British possession, Her Majesty may, by the Order in Council applying the said Acts in the case of any foreign State, or by any subsequent Order, suspend the operation within any such British possession of the said Acts, or of any part thereof, so far as it relates to such foreign State, and so long as such Law continues in force there and no longer:

And whereas by an Act of the Parliament of Canada passed in one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, and entitled "An Act respecting the Extradition of Fugitive Criminals," provision is made for carrying into effect within the Dominion the surrender of fugitive criminals:

And whereas by an Order of Her Majesty the Queen in Council, dated the seventeenth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, it was directed that the operation of the Extradition Acts, 1870 and 1873, should be suspended within the Dominion of Canada so long as the provision of the said Act of the Parliament of Canada of 1886 should continue in force and no longer:

And whereas a Treaty was concluded on the sixteenth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, between Her Majesty and The President of the Republic of Liberia, for the mutual extradition of fugitive criminals, which Treaty is in the terms following:—

Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Empress of India, and His Excellency the President of Liberia, having judged it expedient, with a view to the better administration of justice and to the prevention of crime within their respective territories, that persons charged with or convicted of the crimes hereinafter enumerated, and being fugitives from justice, should, under certain circumstances, be reciprocally delivered up; the said High Contracting Parties have named as their Plenipotentiaries to conclude a Treaty for this purpose, that is to say;

Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Empress of India, the Right Honourable Archibald Philip, Earl of Rosebery, Knight of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs; and

His Excellency the President of Liberia, Henry Hayman, Esq., Consul-General of the Republic of Liberia in London; Who, having communicated to each other their respective Full Powers, found in good and due form, have agreed upon and concluded the following Articles:—

ARTICLE I.

The High Contracting Parties engage to deliver up to each other those persons who, being accused or convicted of a crime or offence committed in the territory of the one Party, shall be found within the territory of the other, under the circumstances and conditions stated in the present Treaty.

ARTICLE II.

The crimes or offences for which the extradition is to be granted are the following:—

1. Murder, or attempt, or conspiracy to murder.
2. Manslaughter.
3. Assault occasioning actual bodily harm.
4. Maliciously wounding or inflicting grievous bodily harm.
5. Counterfeiting or altering money, or uttering counterfeit or altered money.

7. Forgery, counterfeiting, or altering or uttering what is forged, or counterfeited, or altered.
8. Embezzlement or larceny.
9. Malicious injury to property if the offence be indictable.
10. Obtaining money, goods, or valuable securities by false pretences.
11. Receiving money, valuable security, or other property, knowing the same to have been stolen, embezzled, or unlawfully obtained.
12. Crimes against bankruptcy law.
13. Fraud by a bailee, banker, agent, factor, trustee, or director or member or public officer of any Company, made criminal by any law for the time being in force.
14. Perjury, or subornation of perjury.
15. Rape.
16. Carnal knowledge, or any attempt to have carnal knowledge, of a girl under 16 years of age.
17. Indecent assault.
18. Administering drugs, or using instruments, with intent to procure the miscarriage of a woman.
19. Abduction.
20. Child-stealing.
21. Abandoning children, exposing or unlawfully detaining them.
22. Kidnapping and false imprisonment.
23. Burglary or housebreaking.
24. Arson.
25. Robbery with violence.
26. Any malicious act done with intent to endanger the safety of any person in a railway train.
27. Threats by letter or otherwise, with intent to extort.
28. Piracy by law of nations.
29. Sinking or destroying a vessel at sea, or attempting or conspiring to do so.
30. Assaults on board a ship on the high seas, with intent to destroy life, or do grievous bodily harm.
31. Revolt, or conspiracy to revolt, by two or more persons on board a ship on the high seas, against the authority of the master.
32. Dealing in slaves in such a manner as to constitute a criminal offence against the laws of both States.

Extradition is also to be granted for participation in any of the aforesaid crimes, provided such participation be punishable by the laws of both the Contracting Parties.

ARTICLE III.

Either Government may, in its absolute discretion, refuse to deliver up its own subjects to the other Government.

ARTICLE IV.

The extradition shall not take place if the person claimed on the part of the British Government, or the person claimed on the part of the Liberian Government, has already been tried and discharged or punished, or is still under trial, within the territories of the two High Contracting Parties respectively, for the crime for which his extradition is demanded.

If the person claimed on the part of the British Government, or if the person claimed on the part of the Liberian Government, should be under examination, or is undergoing sentence under a conviction, for any other crime within the territories of the two High Contracting Parties respectively, his extradition shall be deferred until after he has been discharged, whether by acquittal, or on expiration of his sentence, or otherwise.

ARTICLE V.

The extradition shall not take place if, subsequently to the commission of the crime, or the institution of the penal prosecution, or the conviction thereon, exemption from prosecution or punishment has been acquired by lapse of time, according to the laws of the State applied to.

ARTICLE VI.

A fugitive criminal shall not be surrendered if the offence in respect of which his surrender is demanded is one of a political character, or if he prove that the requisition for his surrender has in fact been made with a view to try or punish him for an offence of a political character.

ARTICLE VII.

A person surrendered can in no case be kept in prison, or be brought to trial in the State to which the surrender has been made, for any other crime or on account of any other matters than those for which the extradition shall have taken place, until he has been restored or had an opportunity of returning to the State by which he has been surrendered.

This stipulation does not apply to crimes committed after the extradition.

ARTICLE VIII.

The requisition for extradition shall be made in the following manner:—

Application on behalf of Her Britannic Majesty's Government for the surrender of a fugitive criminal in Liberia shall be made by Her Majesty's Consul at Monrovia.

Application on behalf of the Liberian Government for the surrender of a fugitive criminal in the United Kingdom shall be made by the Diplomatic Representative of Liberia in London, or, in the absence of such Representative, by the Consul-General for Liberia in London.

The requisition for the extradition of the accused person must be accompanied by a warrant of arrest issued by the competent authority of the State requiring the extradition, and by such evidence as, according to the laws of the place where the accused is found, would justify his arrest if the crime had been committed there.

If the requisition relates to a person already convicted, it must be accompanied by the sentence of condemnation passed against the convicted person by the competent Court of the State that makes the requisition for extradition.

A sentence passed in contumaciam is not to be deemed a conviction, but a person so sentenced may be dealt with as an accused person.

ARTICLE IX.

If the requisition for extradition be in accordance with the foregoing stipulations, the competent authorities of the State applied to shall proceed to the arrest of the fugitive.

ARTICLE X.

If the fugitive has been arrested in the British dominions he shall forthwith be brought before a competent magistrate, who is to examine him and to conduct the preliminary investigation of the case, just as if the apprehension had taken place for a crime committed in the British dominions.

In the examinations which they have to make in accordance with the foregoing stipulations, the authorities of the British dominions shall admit as valid evidence the depositions or the affirmations of witnesses taken in Liberia, or copies thereof, and likewise the warrants and sentences issued therein, and certificates of, or judicial documents stating the fact of, a conviction, provided the same are authenticated as follows:—

1. A warrant must purport to be signed by a Judge, Magistrate, or officer of Liberia.

2. Depositions or affirmations, or the copies thereof, must purport to be certified under the hand of a Judge, Magistrate, or officer of Liberia to be the original depositions or affirmations, or to be the true copies thereof, as the case may require.

3. A certificate of, or judicial document stating the fact of, a conviction must purport to be certified by a Judge, Magistrate, or officer of Liberia.

4. In every case such warrant, deposition, affirmation, copy, certificate, or judicial document must be authenticated either by the oath of some witness or by being sealed with the official seal of the Minister of Justice or some other Minister of Liberia; but any other mode of authentication for the time being permitted by the law in that part of the British dominions where the examination is taken may be substituted for the foregoing.

ARTICLE XI.

If the fugitive has been arrested in Liberia his surrender shall be granted if, upon examination by a competent authority, it appears that the documents furnished by the British Government contain sufficient prima facie evidence to justify the extradition.

The Authorities of Liberia shall admit as valid evidence records drawn up by the British authorities of the depositions of witnesses, or copies thereof, and records of conviction or other judicial documents, or copies thereof, provided that the said documents be signed or authenticated by an authority whose competence shall be certified by the seal of a Minister of State of Her Britannic Majesty.

ARTICLE XII.

The extradition shall not take place unless the evidence be found sufficient, according to the laws of the State applied to, either to justify the committal of the prisoner for trial, in case the crime has been committed in the territory of the said State, or to prove that the prisoner is the identical person convicted by the Courts of the State which makes the requisition, and that the crime of which he has been convicted is one in respect of which extradition could, at the time of such conviction, have been granted by the State applied to. The fugitive criminal shall not be surrendered until the expiration of fifteen days from the date of his being committed to prison to await his surrender.

ARTICLE XIII.

If the individual claimed by one of the two High Contracting Parties in pursuance of the present Treaty should be also claimed by one or several other powers, on account of other crimes or offences committed upon their respective territories, his extradition shall be granted to that State whose demand is earliest in date.

ARTICLE XIV.

If sufficient evidence for the extradition be not produced within three months from the date of the apprehension of the fugitive, or within such further time as the State applied to, or the proper Tribunal thereof, shall direct, the fugitive shall be set at liberty.

ARTICLE XV.

All articles seized which were in the possession of the person to be surrendered, at the time of his apprehension, shall, if the competent authority of the State applied to for the extradition has ordered the delivery thereof, be given up when the extradition takes place, and the said delivery shall extend not merely to the stolen articles, but to everything that may serve as a proof of the crime.

ARTICLE XVI.

All expenses connected with extradition shall be borne by the demanding State.

ARTICLE XVII.

The stipulations of the present Treaty shall be applicable to the colonies and foreign possessions of Her Britannic Majesty, so far as the laws for the time being in force in such colonies and foreign possessions respectively will allow.

The requisition for the surrender of a fugitive criminal who has taken refuge in any of such colonies or foreign possessions may be made to the Governor or chief authority of such colony or possession by any person authorised to act in such colony or possession as a Consular Officer of Liberia, or if there is no such Consular Officer in the colony, by the Diplomatic Representative of Liberia in London, or in his absence by the Liberian Consul-General.

Such requisitions may be disposed of, subject always, as nearly as may be, and so far as the law of such colony or foreign possession will allow, to the provisions of this Treaty, by the said Governor or chief authority, who, however, shall be at liberty either to grant the surrender, or to refer the matter to his Government.

Her Britannic Majesty shall, however, be at liberty to make special arrangements in the British Colonies and foreign possessions for the surrender of criminals from Liberia who may take refuge within such colonies and foreign possessions, on the basis, as nearly as may be, and so far as the law of such colony or foreign possession will allow, of the provisions of the present Treaty.

Requisitions for the surrender of a fugitive criminal emanating from any colony or foreign possession of Her Britannic Majesty shall be governed by the rules laid down in the preceding Articles of the present Treaty.

ARTICLE XVIII.

The present Treaty shall come into force ten days after its publication, in conformity with the forms prescribed by the laws of the High Contracting Parties. It may be terminated by either of the High Contracting Parties at any time on giving to the other six months' notice of its intention to do so.

The Treaty shall be ratified, and the ratifications shall be exchanged at London as soon as possible.

In witness whereof the respective Plenipotentiaries have signed the same, and have affixed thereto the seal of their arms.

Done at London, the sixteenth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two.

And whereas the ratifications of the said Treaty were exchanged at London on the thirty-first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, and in virtue of the authority committed to Her by the said recited Acts, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the twenty-third day of March, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, the said Acts shall apply in the case of Liberia, and of the said Treaty with the Republic of Liberia.

Provided always, and it is hereby further ordered, that the operation of the said Extradition Acts, 1870 and 1873, shall be suspended within the Dominion of Canada so far as relates to Liberia and to the said Treaty and so long as the provisions of the Canadian Act aforesaid of 1873 continue in force, and no longer.

A PROCLAMATION.

By His Excellency General Sir HENRY WYLIE NORMAN, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of St. Michael and St. George, Companion of the Most Eminent Order of the Indian Empire, Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Colony of Queensland and its Dependencies.

WHEREAS by an Order in Council made on the twenty-eighth day of April, 1887, I did, by and with the advice of the Executive Council, and on the recommendation of the Land Board, order that the operation of so much of the 43rd section of "The Crown Lands Act of 1884" as requires land to be actually surveyed and marked on the ground before it is proclaimed open for selection should be suspended with respect to the Country Land described in the Schedule hereto, and the Surveyor-General was, by the said Order in Council, required to divide the said land into lots and to indicate the position of such lots on proper maps or plans: And whereas the Surveyor-General has accordingly divided the said land into the lots specified in the said Schedule, and has indicated the position thereof on proper maps or plans: Now, therefore, in pursuance and execution of all powers and authorities in me vested under the provisions of "The Crown Lands Acts, 1884 to 1892," I, Sir HENRY WYLIE NORMAN, the Governor aforesaid, by and with the advice of the Executive Council, do, by this my Proclamation, notify and declare that the said Lands specified in the said Schedule hereto, being situated in the ROMA Land Agent's District, shall be open both for CONDITIONAL and UNCONDITIONAL Selection, under the provisions of the said Acts, on and after MONDAY, the SECOND day of JULY, 1894, at the annual rental specified in the said Schedule: And I do hereby further notify and declare that the price at which the lessee may purchase the said lands shall be as specified in the said Schedule: And I do hereby, by and with the advice aforesaid, declare that the maximum area which may be selected by any one person in the said District shall be 1,280 acres.

Given under my Hand and Seal, at Government House, Brisbane, this twenty-third day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, and in the fifty-seventh year of Her Majesty's reign.

QUEENSLAND LAND FORCES. HEAD-QUARTERS' GENERAL ORDER.

By Major-General J. F. OWEN, R.A., Commandant.
Brisbane, 11th June, 1894.

No. 110.

AS Major-General J. F. OWEN, R.A., relinquishes this day the Commandantship of the Military Forces of Queensland (on the expiration of his appointment), he is desirous in this Order to take a final and formal farewell of these Forces, which he has had the honour and the pleasure of commanding for the past three years.

He has already, at his last Annual Inspection of the different Corps in the several Military Districts, made to each a farewell address, so that there seems no necessity for repeating the same at any length in this Order.

When the great financial catastrophe overtook this colony the organisation of the Forces was proceeding satisfactorily, and excellent progress was being made in the several branches, especially in the improvement of the Infantry Battalions as such, and in the moderate expansion, the equipment, and the training of the Mounted Infantry.

Efforts were being strenuously made for the forming, should the necessity arrive for the Forces being mobilised, of a small movable brigade of all arms with sufficient remainder for effective garrisons where wanted, and for laying down practically the lines and the manner of mobilisation on any emergency.

The sad necessity for stringent economy on the part of the State, as well as in every private enterprise, has since seriously interfered with these endeavours and with the progress of the Force, but recognising thoroughly as loyal citizens as they have done, from the Commandant downwards, the actual necessity for such economy, right bravely have officers and men faced the situation and shown that they do not want to be feather-bed citizen soldiers but are determined to do their work as thoroughly as possible in bad times as in more prosperous days.

Aggravated by other misfortunes, floods in the south, droughts in the west, and by the shrinkage in every industry and calling, many officers and men have been driven to leave their former homes and to seek employment elsewhere.

Where inevitable disbandment of many a well-organised body followed upon necessary retrenchment, it was touching to observe the affection with which those who had for years done good work for their country clung to the bodies of which they were members and stood when possible to the colours and the corps.

Yet, though suffering, like all other institutions in the colony, from retrenchment and the other causes mentioned, the Forces remain in a healthy condition, fit and ready to do their duty by their country.

They recently have proved how deep is their patriotic feeling by their excellent attendance at voluntary Easter encampments throughout the country.

During his term of office Major-General Owen has endeavoured as far as possible to strengthen the ties between the Commandant and the Staff and the officers and men of the forces for whose training, discipline, and welfare they are responsible; so that not only should they be bound together as one by the bonds of discipline, but also be united by that complete sympathy which should ever exist between the military commander and those under his command.

He feels that his endeavours have been largely successful, and that in parting from the citizen soldiers of Queensland he leaves behind him not only comrades in arms but those who will feel that he has worked, as was but his plain duty, not alone to improve their discipline but also for their best welfare.

Efforts have been made to do away, as far as possible, with obnoxious "red tape," to hasten correspondence, and to lighten the clerical labour of officers commanding corps.

As far as the officers are concerned, a centre for military study and discussion has been founded in the Q.U.S. Institution which it is hoped will bear good fruit in the future.

With respect to non-commissioned officers and men, much pains have been taken, not only as to training in drill and exercises, but also to improve the shooting of the Forces, to complete and improve the clothing and their equipment, and, as regards the partially paid portion, to ensure the prompt payment of the small premium which they earn.

The depression prevailing throughout the world still bears hardly on this colony and upon its Forces, but there are signs of the clouds beginning to clear away. When the sun of prosperity—as undoubtedly must be the case ere long—shines once more bright and full on this land so full of resources, Major-General Owen is assured that their fellow-citizens will not be forgetful of the self-sacrifice, patriotism, and high sense of duty shown by the Forces in these troublous times, and that there will then be better things in store for them.

Recognising how vast is the area of this great colony and how far the distances which separate many corps from Head-Quarters, he has made it a special point annually to visit each corps wherever quartered, and to acquaint himself personally with the officers and men, their desires and wants, and the conditions under which they have to work in their several localities. He feels that the time taken up and the trouble involved in so doing have in no degree been thrown away, and that all now thoroughly appreciate the fact that distance from Head-Quarters is no bar whatever to the interests of each corps being carefully attended to.

Major-General Owen assures all concerned that he will carry away with him a most lively sense of the great zeal of the Staff and of the cordial help they have always afforded him, of the enthusiasm, loyalty, and amenity to discipline shown by officers and men, and of the good work done by all.

He returns to them all his warmest thanks.

He will, notwithstanding the inevitable drawbacks mentioned, always look back with pleasure to his stay in this beautiful country, and be proud to think that for three years he commanded those Forces in whose future he will ever take the most lively interest.

And now, in bidding them finally farewell, he wishes to them each and all happiness, prosperity, and golden days in this wonderful land of their birth or adoption, of which he himself has been three years a citizen, and of which he will ever remain one in heart.

J. SANDERSON LYSTER, Major,
Brigade Major, Q.D.F.

[23rd April, 1894.]

WHEREAS the raising or keeping of a standing army within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in time of peace, unless it be with the consent of Parliament, is against law :

And whereas no man can be forejudged of life or limb, or subjected in time of peace to any kind of punishment within this realm by martial law, or in any other manner than by the judgment of his peers and according to the known and established laws of this realm ; yet nevertheless it being requisite, for the retaining all the before-mentioned forces, and other persons subject to military law, in their duty, that an exact discipline be observed, and that persons belonging to the said forces who mutiny or stir up sedition, or desert Her Majesty's service, or are guilty of crimes and offences to the prejudice of good order and military discipline, be brought to a more exemplary and speedy punishment than the usual forms of the law will allow :
